For the Jasper Weekly Courier.
A Living Wonder.

Having had an introduction through the columns of the "Jasper Courier" to a living curiosity in the shape of a two-legged beast, and known to us for the first time as Colonel Edmonson's Bull Pup which appears to have, or wants to assume a conspicuous position before the people to compromise his here-to-fore antagonistic conduct to the will of the majority of the voters of Dubois county by his frequent publications in the "Signal" and "Courier," which he signs "G. T. B. Carr," but I think it should be "Carr," as he certainly belongs to that species, which may be seen by his hap-hazard snaps at conclusions that the people might believe him to be an anti-slender and accept the same as true. But they will not believe it for they are mere fabrications of his elusive brain, as is conclusively shown to a candid and reflecting mind by his absurd assertions in public print—such as his trip up Salt River in a canoe, and his thought that the court-house would be removed by some magic performance on a certain night, and that we had no artist in Huntingburg to take our party photographs, and that we could never get the Railroad nor the court-house.

But he thought if we did get the last named institution he knew one thing we could get, namely—G. T. B. Carr as one of us. But that is just what we don't want, for we have Bull Pups and Carr Dogs enough. He blames the officers for not locating the Railroad; and says if it had only been located by the way of Huntingburg that he would have worked for an appropriation. If he had, it would not have been much, as may be seen by the result of his zealous efforts in the last election. As Carr has complained that already too much time and money had been spent, thereby indicating that he was left in poverty; if so—come Pup, as I always have plenty of chickens, you may have the bones to pick. And to remember you to the "by way" railroad clique we will take some photographs of you that you may be enabled to bark after you have died like Miller has died—what say you Salt River crew? We have an artist here by the name of Captain Fisher who once took a photograph of a dog so natural that the picture had hydrophobia during hot weather. Yes, he is quite a genius indeed, and has been instructing Dufendach of late. But don't you think friend Doane that it might be very dangerous to take such a perfect picture, as he might bite you or I, for Pups as a general thing, don't forget their ups and downs soon; and wouldn't it be hard on the old Colonel if he had the photograph of "his Bull Pup" on the wall and while handling the bottle round in company the picture should become intoxicated and order them to leave the premises under the plea of pre-emption right. What say you Col. Edmonson?—if you desire the picture taken don't scare your pup for he's very hard to catch. I never have heard of him being captured only in three particular ways, and his friends if he has any (and I doubt if his old master is his friend) would like to know how it was accomplished.

Well, I will tell you, the first was when he was wet upon; the second, when king alcohol over took him; and third, when Arnold H. Miller Esq., Ex-Justice of the Peace of Huntingburg read his manuscript to him, for Carr says that Miller is as fleet as greased lightning and can overtake him easily. But then you all know that Carr admires Miller very much, and that the genius he attributes to M., is like his friendship for M.—only put on; for Carr is entirely devoid of that feeling. If he possessed any, he ought to have sense enough to know that charity begins at home; therefore we eat the chicken meat and give the bones to the Pups. And when you read this to any one, Mr. Carr, don't forget to tell them this was conceived by the strong, or weak, mind of the photograph of the DEAD, DEAD Arnold H. Miller, Esq., Ex-Justice of the Peace of Huntingburg—who WHIT THAT.

Yours with profound respect for your species. By the Photograph of A. H. MILLER, Esq.
P. S. Friend Doane, please don't send a copy of this to his father-in-law, as it might cut their friendship; and if this will not suffice, Miller will have to be exhumed to complete this job.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The Democratic Convention, if they wish to succeed in the coming canvass, must select good and upright men—men who live a sober and judicious life, and are at all times capable of attending to their business. The State has been cursed long enough with drunken officials. Because a man can make at a public meeting, a good speech, and then get drunk, it is no evidence that he will make a good officer. We say to the Democracy of the State, steer clear of such cattle.—Paul Eagle.

NORTH SHADE, Gratiot Co., Mich., Aug. 1859.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir: I am now about fifty-eight years old, and have been afflicted with Rheumatism in my limbs so that I was unable to leave my room at times for 25 years. I suffered general nervous derangement and excessive debility, and have used almost every kind of patent medicine to no benefit. I have tried a great many Physicians to no purpose. I now feel very thankful that I have at last found a Medicine that has given relief. I have bought some of your Scandinavian Blood Pills of your agent at Matherton, Mr. Marcus Smith, and they have given me almost entire relief. My limbs and veins were greatly swollen, but your Medicines have reduced them to their proper size, and I have been able to walk three and four miles at a time.

Very respectfully yours,
DEBORAH ROBERTS.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc.—The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will try his remedy, as it will cost him nothing, and prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Manhood: How lost, How

Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the RADICAL CURE (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Gonorrhea, KIDNEY, and PITS, induced by Self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and successfully.

This Lecture should be in the hands of Every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Doctor Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
